ASEF—Unplugged Conversations—on—the—Arts in—Asia—and—Europe

A collaboration with Kultura Nova, for an afternoon of informal conversation about the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) and our work in culture. Croatia is a member of ASEF and our parent body, the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM) since 2014. Our work in culture in Croatia includes: we provide information about and for Croatian artists on our arts website, culture360.ASEF.org; we provide travel grants for events in & artists from Croatia; we run a museum network that provides training & networking; and, we could organise events in your country as well.

To better serve the needs of the arts community in Croatia, we would like to invite you to join us for a conversation at 13:00 on 26 April 2019 at Europe House Zagreb, Hall Strasbourg. We will tell you a little bit about ASEF and the work we do in arts, culture & heritage. And, we would like to hear from you about your work and what we could possibly do together.

We look forward to seeing you there !

unplugged
/ʌnˈplʌgd/
adjective

1. (of pop or rock music) performed or recorded with acoustic rather than electrically amplified instruments.
"Rod Stewart's acoustic set spawned an unplugged album that sold three million copies"
2. (of conversations) an informal atmosphere, allowing for an open exchange of ideas
"I had an unplugged exchange with arts funders and was able to share my grievances freely"
